ABOUT THE FILM:

Executive producer Brad Pitt presents BIG MEN, filmed over five years, this epic true tale explores what happens when ambitious people uncover a massive and exquisitely rare pot of gold in one of the poorest places on earth. The film's central story follows a small group of American explorers at Dallas-based oil company Kosmos Energy. With unprecedented, independent access, a two person crew filmed inside the oil company as Kosmos and its partners discovered and developed the first commercial oil field in Ghana's history. What follows is a twisting tale of greed and deception with global implications, told by director Rachel Boynton (OUR BRAND IS CRISIS) with razor-sharp journalistic skill.
